Pass It On...

What's happening at Little Britain United Church

November 2020

Message from Beth McLean

Greetings Friends,

This newsletter is a few days late in arriving in your inbox, as the Little Britain Council met to search for ways for us, as a Church to celebrate the upcoming Advent and Christmas season. Little Britain United has a history of reaching beyond the walls of the church building out into the community and it is the reason I am honoured to say I minister with the folk of Little Britain United.

Many of you will fully understand and support the decision not to worship together on Christmas Eve in the church building. There will be a service conducted via Zoom and I hope many will join me on Christmas Eve either by Zoom or telephone with your family bubble. Much more information will be coming closer to Christmas.

Also, plans are underway for us to place the Jessie Tree in the hall where, at designated times you can place your mitts, scarves, hats on the tree. What is not taken to a school will be used for outreach in Selkirk. The hamper project and support of the Selkirk Food Bank and Soup Kitchen is going forward in a new way. All these details will be coming your way in the next little while.

Thanks to all who continue to support the church and may we all keep the faith knowing that God is with us throughout these times. Stay safe, stay well.

Peace to all,
Beth McLean, Minister

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

- Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae
